FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Kaiser Elected to Board of Directors

CARRINGTON, ND – (January 30, 2015) The Garrison Diversion Conservancy District welcomes Geneva Kaiser to the Board of Directors. Geneva Kaiser, Stutsman County, was elected in November’s general election by Stutsman County constituents to serve on the Garrison Diversion Conservancy District’s board of directors.

Kaiser replaced retired director Thomas Olson. She was sworn into office at the board’s quarterly meeting in January and will serve a two-year term on the board.

Geneva attended Valley City State College where she studied accounting. She has worked for the Stutsman Rural Water District for 25 years where she currently serves as Manager. She is also the Managers Representative on the North Dakota Rural Water Systems Association state executive board. Geneva resides in Jamestown and has one daughter.

The Garrison Diversion Board of Directors has 28 members, each of whom represents a member county. The board works to fulfill Garrison Diversion’s mission to provide a reliable, high quality and affordable water supply to benefit the people of North Dakota.
